

Take Steps to Live Well with Parkinson's

PFNCA Parkinson's Pointers: Free Community Lecture

Topic: The Value of Multidisciplinary Care in Parkinson's Disease

Speaker: Dr. Zoltan Mari

Thursday June 6, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.

Fox Hill Residences

8300 Burdette Rd, Bethesda, MD

Register at www.parkinsonfoundation.org or (301) 844-6510

Parkinson's Pointers is a lecture series where people gather in various locations for a presentation and a question and answer session by a physician or other person that specializes in Parkinson's. Powerful practical information is shared in a positive setting. Lectures are live streamed to the locations and refreshments are served. Parkinson's Pointers is a program of the Parkinson Foundation of the National Capital Area.

Produced by

PARKINSON FOUNDATION
OF THE NATIONAL CAPITAL AREA

Hosted by

Made Possible with Support From

